Global financier and philanthropist George Soros, who chairs a network of foundations that promote, among other things, the creation of open, democratic societies, flew into Chandigarh to meet 100-year-old Fori Nehru, wife of the late B K Nehru, one of India's most distinguished civil servants. Soros and Fori, both born in Hungary, have been exchanging correspondence over the years.

After retirement, B K Nehru — a cousin of Indira Gandhi, he was Ambassador to the United States in the late 1950s and nearly succeeded Dag Hammarskjold as United Nations Secretary General — settled in Kasauli with Fori. He died in 2001 but Fori, who is called Shobha Aunty by all who know her, stayed put in the Kasauli bungalow.

The meeting between Soros and Fori was arranged at her son Anil Nehru's residence in Sector 9, Chandigarh. Soros reached Chandigarh at 2 pm, flying in from Delhi on a chartered Kingfisher plane. Anil was there at the airport to receive him and they headed straight to the Sector 9 house. Soros left for Delhi at 5 pm, boarding the same plane.

When contacted, Anil Nehru said: "This is a personal visit and no family member, including my mother, has anything to say on this." The staff accompanying Soros too refused to discuss the meeting.

Born in Hungary, Fori moved to India in the 1930s after her marriage. She celebrated her 100th birthday last December.

Her correspondence with Winston Churchill's biographer Martin Gilbert, in which he explained to her the history of Jews, was later published as Letters to Auntie Fori: 5000 years of Jewish History.

4. And very few know that Fori Nehru, aunty of Rahul Gandhi was the best friend of George Soros. On 18th June 2015, Rahul Gandhi visited to meet his aunt Fori (Shobha) Nehru.

FDL-AP ALERTS

Highlighting problems of particular urgency in the Asia-Pacific with links to background literature and groups working to resolve them.

Background: Like all associations with boundless hopes and limited means, the FDL-AP is obliged to focus its resources on a few battles at a time. Although we are now working intensely on Burma, Cambodia, and youth education, we are of course also deeply concerned with the many other tragedies in the region. This section will therefore try to illuminate lesser known struggles in the Asian neighborhood, which are also committed to self-determination, human rights and social justice. Due to its length, body count and now nuclear aspects, we begin with the Kashmir conflict, but also invite your assistance to expose other movements which desperately require public attention and support.

7.RaGa a perpetual liar patiently waits always for every opportunity to belittle & ridicule India.
He shared an image of ‘Varieties of Democracy’(V-DEM) Institute Democracy Rpt 2021 – ‘India is no longer a democratic country’ is a clear indication of his petty mindset for India.

8. In 2021 RaGa was singing the tune crafted by Soros.

The V-DEM Institute Democracy that reportedly downgraded India from ‘world largest democracy’ & termed India as autocratic as Pak, worse than Bangladesh is also relationship with George Soros funded Open Society Foundation.
